Welcome to Swansea
Organisation	How to Access
The Better Welcome to Swansea Project – a mentoring scheme running in partnership between SCVS and Swansea City of Sanctuary. Volunteers are recruited and trained to support people seeking sanctuary (primarily newly arrived asylum seekers), to feel welcome. The aim of the scheme is to promote integration between asylum seekers and refugees and people in local Swansea communities. The project provides support both in groups and individually to increase sanctuary seekers' knowledge of the Swansea area and its attractions, whilst encouraging active participation in day-to-day activities including volunteering and education.	Email: involve@scvs.org.uk Charlotte_davies@scvs.org.uk Natalia_ilina@scvs.org.uk Tel: 01792 457299 Web: https://www.scvs.org.uk/involve We welcome referrals from all agencies as well as self-referrals. Public Health Wales - have developed an online parenting resource in lots of different languages. The need for extra parenting support for this population has been recognised. Children and adults in sanctuary seeking families have often had traumatic experiences and may struggle adapting to a new environment, and the parents are likely facing a new language, culture and asylum process, making successful parenting more difficult.	Scroll down the page for other languages version To get access users just need to visit www.inourplace.co.uk and use the code 'NWSOL' if you live in North Wales, and 'SWSOL' if you live in Mid, West or South Wales. Then simply choose the courses that are most relevant to their child or children, split into four easy to use sections covering: • Understanding pregnancy, labour birth and your baby • Understanding you baby • Understanding your child • Understanding your teenager's brain
