Rocio Cifuentes is the Children's Commissioner for Wales. She started in post in April 2022, and will be the Children's Commissioner for seven years. Rocio's job is to tell people why children's rights are so important and to look at how the decisions made by public bodies in Wales, including the Welsh Government, affect children's rights.

This is her story… https://youtu.be/nZRkvnTgyYQ

The first activity in the event was learning more about our rights, then, we had to prioritise a given list of rights. We chose five rights that we felt were the most important to make a Rights Island and gave our reasons for choosing those rights.

Our second task was to design a poster to encourage every class in our school to complete The Ambitions for Wales Survey for Rocio and her team to feedback to the Welsh Assembly Government.
We hope you all completed the survey.

We had a great day with Rocio and her team discussing our rights and the rights of others. As Super Ambassadors will continue to work hard at Sketty Primary to ensure that your rights are upheld and that your voice is heard.
